

I have been privileged to make many wonderful trips and see many amazing, and moving sights. One of the most awe inspiring of these was Normandy. To see the beaches, fields, and towns where 9,386 brave Americans paid the ultimate sacrifice for freedom stirs the heart in a way that is difficult to explain. We know that over 1.1 million United States Military personnel have died in battle since the beginning of our nation. Those lives were given to provide freedom for our nation and others. It is obvious that freedom requires a great price. It is a price that we should not let others forget. It is for that very reason we should remember the sacrifices to abolish the oppression of Marxism, Communism, Racism and every other ism that devalues the human soul. One reason we have Memorial day is for us to note that a sacrifice has been given for this freedom and we must stand against all who would raise up the very types of oppression for which so many of our brothers, sisters, sons and daughters have died. We should stand along side the memories of those who were willing to fight and fall that our children might be free to run and play, free to learn and grow, free to vote and worship. So I urge you to join me this Memorial Day in giving a prayer of thanks for all who have served and given their lives representing the values of one nation under God. Pray also that our citizens will not forget that the price which has been paid for our freedom is too precious to trample upon by turning away from the very principles and God who has made our nation great.

And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.
Colossians 3:17

We were made in the image of God to give Him the honor, glory and praise in everything we do in life. This is a great guideline for how we can live our lives and determine what things we don't need to do. We'll still be tempted, but we can know that if it doesn't honor Christ, it doesn't belong in our lives. We can and will be transformed by having Jesus rule over our hearts and lives.
